Finding Talent: Techniques for Recruiting and Selecting Skilled Immigrants - Video trailer

Title: Today, some of Canada's companies are struggling to recruit the best talent. This is a preview of a fictional story of one such company.

Henry Sutherland, Hiring Manager: Yeah, I know we can do it. I've got the best team of managers in the country. We've got the best.

Dana Bowen, HR Manager: Systemone reached him, Henry.

Henry Sutherland: I need someone I can count on, I need someone who will fit in and I need them now.

Dana Bowen: We consider opening the search up to skilled immigrants.

Henry Bowen: Look, I just want the right person. I don't care where they come from.

Tarek Khan, skilled immigrant job candidate: There is an opening for a project manager.

Henry Sutherland: I want Crosby, not Walker.

Dana Bowen: You will be meeting with Henry Sutherland who is the hiring manager of the division.

Henry Sutherland: Tell me about the time you disagreed with your boss.

So what kind of extracurricular activities do you enjoy, Tarek? Like on the weekends, say?

Tarek Khan: Most Fridays we are at our mosque.
