

NEWS AND NOTES

New Board of Trade forum is enhancing diversity

The Toronto region is home to one of the most diverse and dynamic business communities in the world. Chaired by Norman Marshall, Vice President, Commercial Banking at BNC, the Toronto Board of Trade Diversity Forum is a group of business leaders with expertise in the areas of diversity and small business. The Forum is actively engaging with multicultural leaders of economic, business associations and the city's diversity leadership to bring up new networking opportunities, host leading international speakers and ensure that the Board of Trade's membership truly reflects the diversity of business in our region.

WELCUP Board of Trade members are recognized for their innovation and leadership in integrating global companies into the Toronto region below market.

Board of Trade members recognized for diversity leadership
