

Screening / Requirement for FIN Program

1. In-person meeting and assessment with one of CASIP agencies
2. Language capacity in English and/or French (minimum Canadian Language Benchmark (CLB) of 8-8)
3. Job ready to enter the Canadian labour market (Resume and Interview skills ready)
4. Candidates MUST have appropriate education, skills and qualifications for the job to apply (please see list of job titles and degrees below)
5. Credential Assessment (Not mandatory but highly recommended)

Potential Positions and Education Requirements

Job Title	Mandatory Education Requirement (Minimum Requirements)	Optional Education Requirement (Asset Requirements)
Policy Analyst Economic Analyst	Graduation with a degree from a university with acceptable specialization in Economics, Sociology or Statistics  NOTE: Candidates must always have a university degree. The courses for the specialization do not necessarily have to be part of a degree program in the required specialization (please indicate in your application how you meet this criteria).	Master's degree from a recognized university in one of the following areas: Sociology, Statistics, Economics, Public Administration, Political Science, International Relations, International Development, and Law